assurances from her husband that the opposite is true. They have made Fresno their home and believe it's important to give back to the community. They are active Rotarians and give regularly to Children's Hospital of Central California.

Tom Kaye began his career at the age of 13, in his father's interior design firm in Chicago. After finishing college, he began his formal career as a manufacturing representative for a textile firm, later working for various wholesale and retail window covering companies in California. By 1991, Tom was ready to go out on his own.

As a girl growing up in San Francisco, Sandra Kaye had learned to sew from her mother. She later worked in a drapery workroom while a student at San Francisco State. As a wholesale representative for top suppliers of drapery workrooms in California, she would run into Tom periodically. Although competitors, they had a mutual respect and admiration for each other's talent. When Tom wanted to open his own business in Fresno, Sandra agreed to work with him.

The Kayes' and their professional staff help clients to manage their choices in everything from paint colors and flooring options, to finishing their home with window coverings, furnishings and artwork. Sandra Kaye accompanies clients on focused buying trips to the bay area. "We've made it our mission to make high quality interior design available to the Central Valley. Our unique pricing structure allows us to do that." Visit their showroom: Your Home Interiors at 6687 N. Blackstone Ave. or call 559.277.1234 with any questions.

 Tom Kaye, Vice-President

Tom and Sandra Kaye used to be fierce competitors working for rival companies, meeting up occasionally on the road as they canvassed Northern California representing their respective companies. Somewhere along the line, they realized they were better as a team so they got married. "Now you get twice as much experience," Sandra Kaye says with a warm smile. "But Tom's the real expert," she finishes, prompting
